

Let's have some fun?

“Practice and repetition lead us to perfection, or at least, closer enough”.

Here are the answers

When did the Industrial Revolution take place?

The answer is: In the late 1700s

What were those who owned the land called?

The answer is: aristocrats

How were the new machines powered?

The answer is: By water, steam and coal.

How did the new machines work?

The answer is: Cheaper and faster.

Where was the work done?

The answer is: In factories.

New inventions were applied first in...

The answer is: The textile industry.

Where could products be sold now?

The answer is: All around the world.

Where did many families move to?

The answer is: Industrial towns.

Which new social class appeared during the Industrial Revolution?

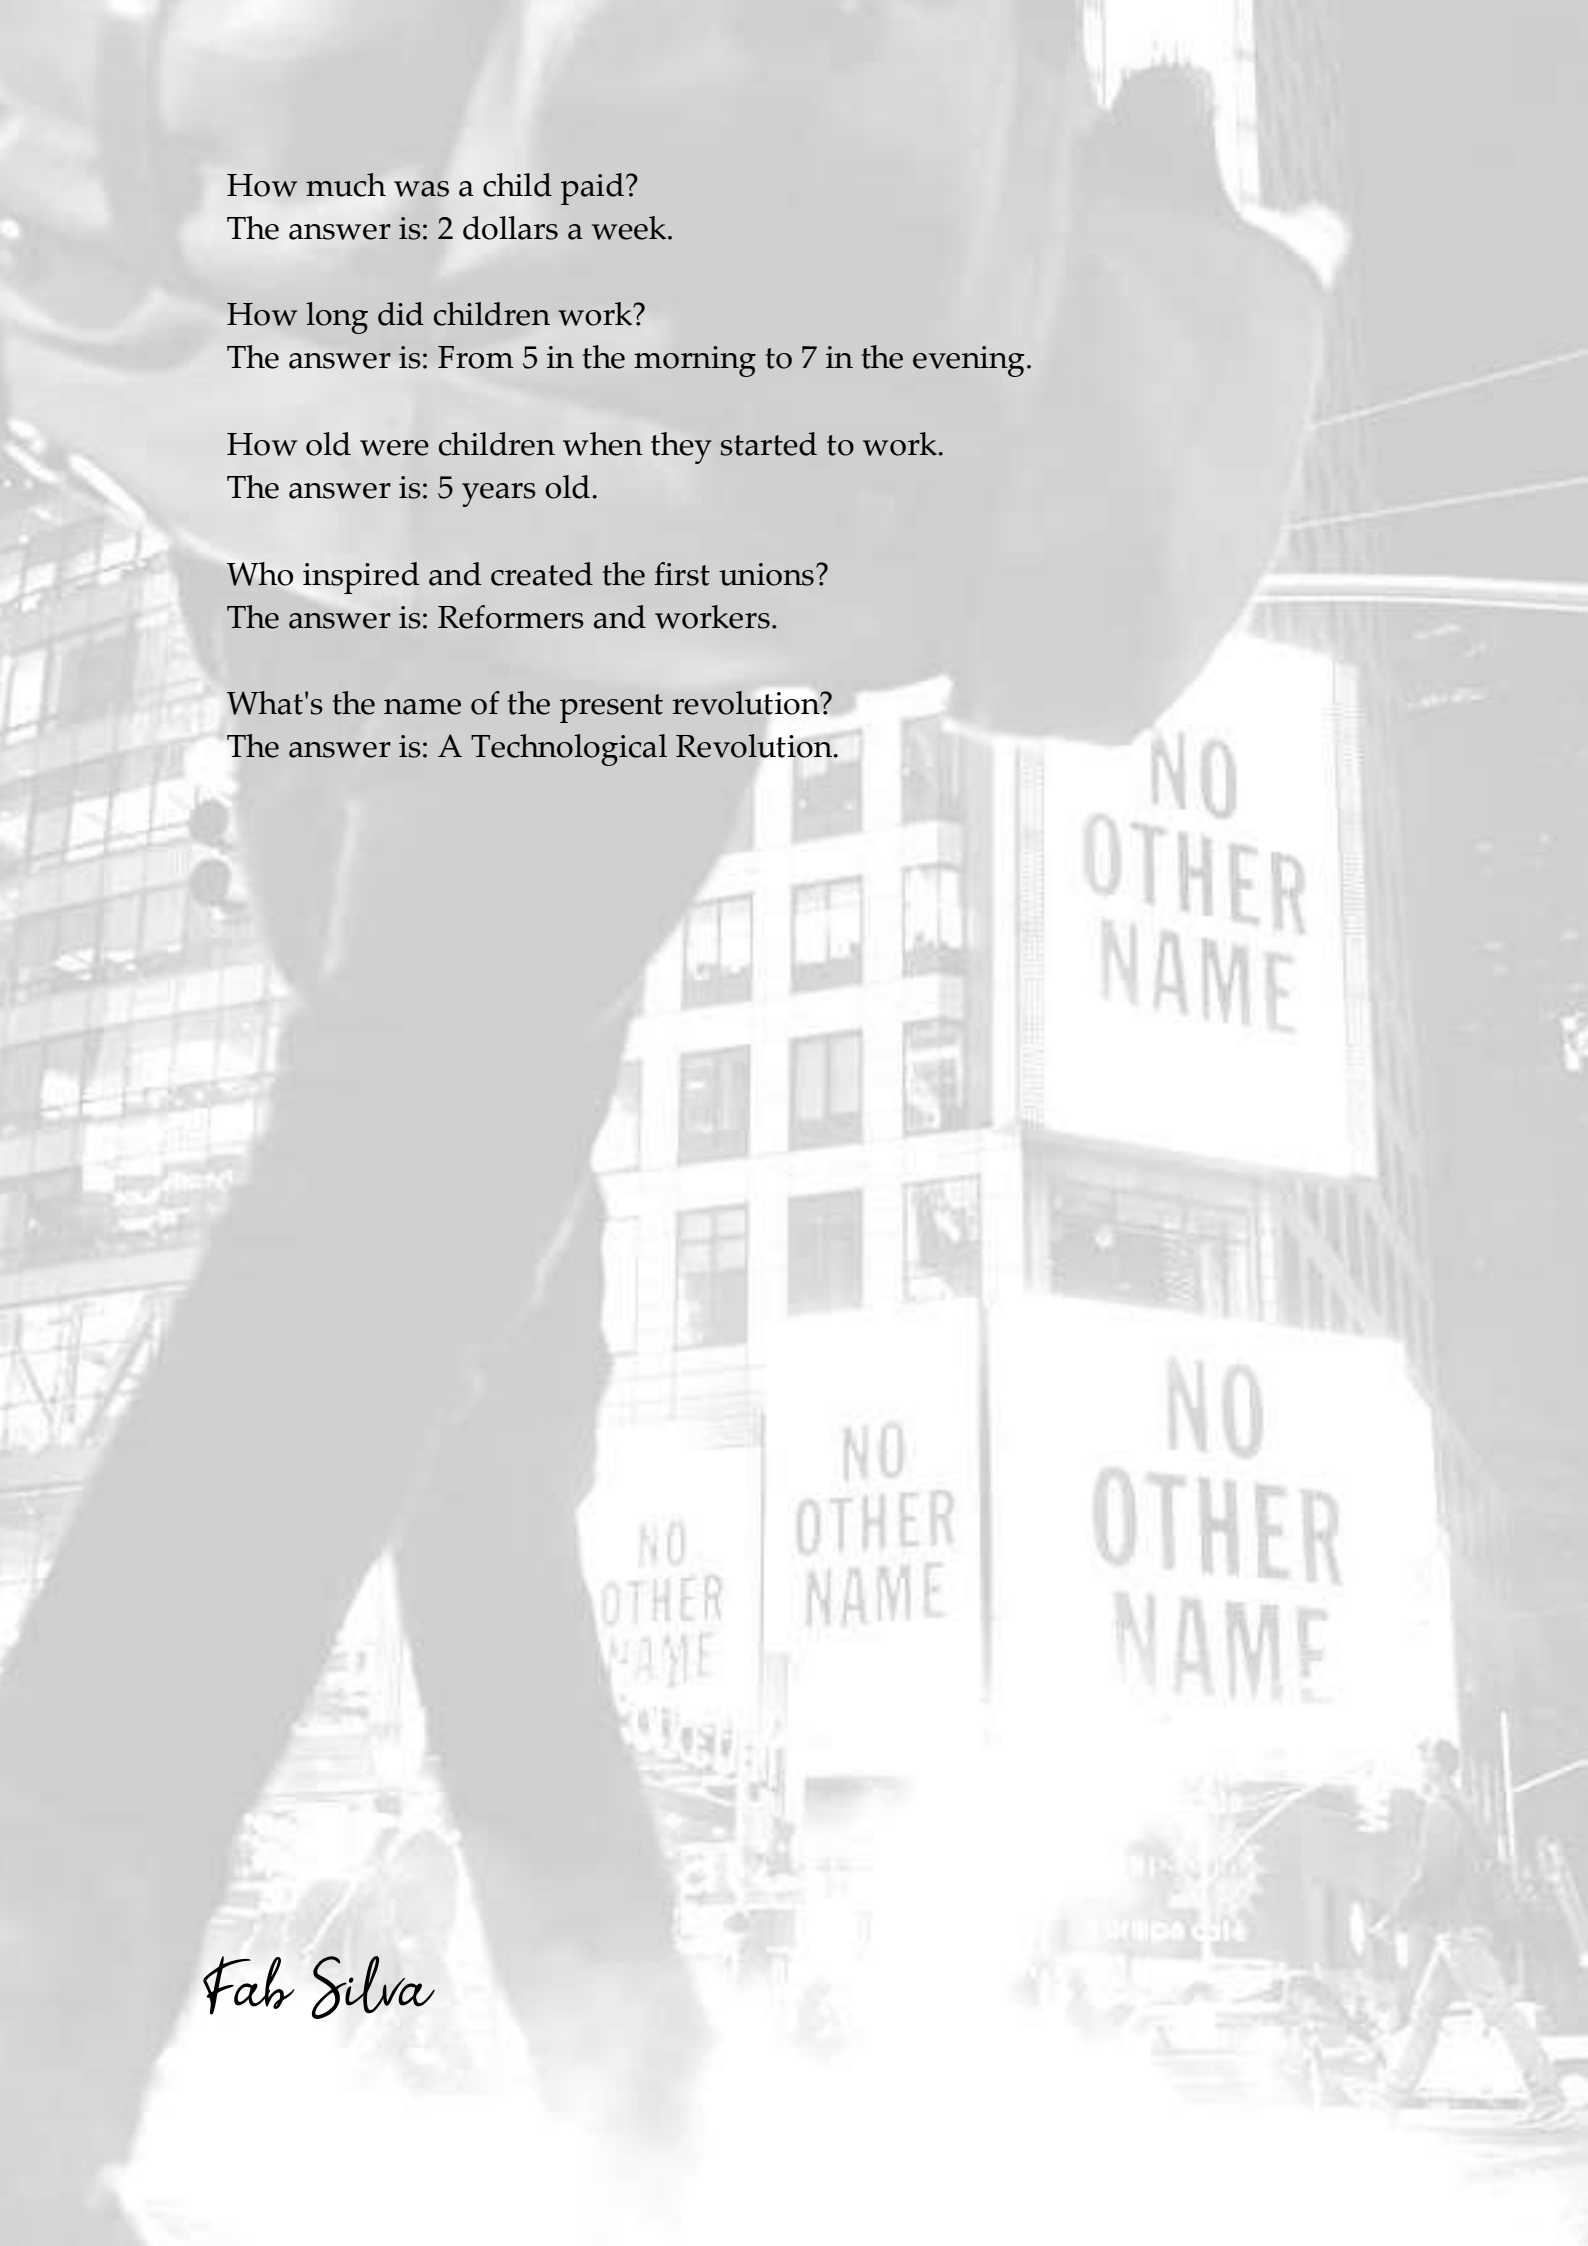

The answer is: The working class.

Why did industrial towns become black?

The answer is: Because of the pollution.

Where were some of the worst working conditions?

The answer is: In textile mills.

How much was a child paid?
The answer is: 2 dollars a week.

How long did children work?
The answer is: From 5 in the morning to 7 in the evening.

How old were children when they started to work.
The answer is: 5 years old.

Who inspired and created the first unions?
The answer is: Reformers and workers.

What's the name of the present revolution?
The answer is: A Technological Revolution.

Fab Silva